Let's go on a treasure hunt in Whitby

In the summer holidays Sam visited his relatives in Whitby. He spent one week with his uncle John, his aunt Maggie und his cousin Paula. On the first morning he found this advert in the local newspaper, the Whitby Gazette:

Do your kids love adventure stories? Do you like fresh air, great views and lots of fun? Then you must go on a great treasure hunt in Whitby!

Take your kids on an exciting walk around Whitby. With our map you cannot lose your way. Enjoy the sights of our beautiful town on an interesting 2 hour-walk. Our route takes you through the centre of Whitby. You pass lots of landmarks: Whitby railway station, our market place with very old buildings (some are 400 years old), Whitby Abbey, Whitby Swing Bridge, The Lifeboat Museum, The Captain Cook Memorial Museum and much more. You see: Whitby is a great place! After your tour you must return to your favourite places and find out more about them.

On the tour you answer lots of questions and find out much about Whitby and its history. You can take our brochure (your own "treasure map") and fill it in. Or you can download and print the route, the questions and the correct answers. Or use your mobile. There is a GPS treasure hunt, too. Please check our homepage for more information.

You can start your tour whenever you are ready!

Sam's diary entry

It's the last day of Sam's stay in Whitby. He is happy because he has done so many great things. But there are still things on his to-do list. So, he must come back soon.

Exercise:

Sam is writing a diary entry about his exciting holiday. Check his to-do list. Then finish his diary entry and say what he has already done and what he hasn't done yet. Use the present perfect.

My to-do list for the holiday in Whitby

- go on an exciting treasure hunt
- explore the Captain Cook Memorial Museum
- climb the 199 steps from Whitby to the ruins of Whitby Abbey
- listen to ghost stories in Whitby Abbey
- meet Dracula ☺ ... People say he really was here once!
- take the steam railway to Hogsmeade Station ☺
- sail along the coastline in an old sailing boat
- see a fantastic waterfall in the countryside
- have fun with Paula, Aunt Maggie and Uncle John
- go rowing with Uncle John
- read a book about smugglers
- write my own story about smugglers in Whitby

Dear Diary,

I've had a wonderful time here in Whitby. I've done and seen many great things. But there is much more to do. So, I must come back soon!

I've already gone on an exciting treasure hunt. I haven't explored the Captain Cook Memorial Museum yet ...

Plumpy's special trip to London

Plumpy lives on planet Pluto. He usually does the same things all the time. But last week he flew to London with his magic ufo PX1. It was a great trip, but everything was different.

Exercise:

Make correct sentences. Put in the simple present and the simple past.

Example: Plumpy usually gets up at 8 pm, but last week he got up at 6 am.

1. Plumpy always (go) _____ to bed at 6 am, but last week he (go) _____ to bed at 8 pm.
2. Plumpy usually (count) _____ stars, but last Monday he (feed) _____ fish in the river Thames.
3. Plumpy often (fly) _____ ufo races on Milky Way, but last Tuesday he (swim) _____ under water with his PX1.
4. Plumpy never (eat) _____ lunch, but last Wednesday he (eat) _____ a lovely slice of pizza.
5. Plumpy often (read) _____ ghost stories, but last Thursday he (visit) _____ a real ghost in the Tower of London.
6. Plumpy usually (play) _____ with his friends on Pluto, but last Friday he (go) _____ bungee jumping with some kids in London Zoo.
7. Plumpy never (work) _____ before 9 pm, but last Saturday he (tidy up) _____ his ufo at 7 am.
8. Plumpy usually _____ (wash) his ufo on Wednesdays, but last week he _____ (wash) it before he _____ (fly) back home on Saturday afternoon.

Tipp:

He, she, it – das -s muss mit!

Wortklärung:

Milky Way [ˌmɪlki ˈweɪ], die Milchstraße
